

The 60th Annual Harvest Hoedown Proudly Presents
Square Dance 101—Building Our Activity
“Back to Basics - Expanding On Our Foundation”

Friday, October 25, 2019 — 9:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.
Expo Hall—Yuba-Sutter Fairgrounds, Yuba City, CA

Here's the Plan ...

Expand your Harvest Hoedown experience by participating in this all-day, interactive workshop. We're offering members of our square dance community the opportunity to meet with other dancers and callers to share ideas to improve our activity. No experience needed—just a willingness to learn from other dancers or share your own ideas. Come in Thursday night for the Trail's End Dance, then spend Friday interacting with other dancers.

By request, this year's program will revisit and expand on topics discussed in previous years – and how have we expanded on those ideas? Among the topics to be discussed will be:

- Dancer Recruitment & Retention
- Dealing with emergency situations
- Contracts – club caller/cuer; guest callers/cuers; facility rental and more
- Job descriptions for club officers, including discussion on whether you need a couple of leaders or a “small army” to run the club
- Dancer Injuries/Insurance
- Recruiting people to take active positions within the club – thoughts on the best ways to get new members involved without scaring them off
- Resources – who/what are your local, regional, state and national organizations? What resources to they provide to help your club succeed?

We will use an open forum format. Everyone will be encouraged to share ideas, experiences, and challenges faced allowing the group to explore options that might prove successful in your own areas.
